

HEY! Iowa Students!

Know someone who is making a difference?

Enter a student you know (or hey, yourself!) for the 2016 Robert Mannheimer Youth Advocacy Award!

The Mannheimer Award carries a $500 cash prize, given each year to a young Iowan who has shown a passion and advocacy for civil liberties.

To nominate someone or enter yourself, just go to www.aclu-ia.org for a nomination form and details. It's fast and easy!

The deadline is Monday, April 25, so don't delay!

Questions? Go to www.aclu-ia.org or email veronica.fowler@aclu-ia.org or call her at 515-207-0586

Open to anyone age 14-19 who has been a leader or made a difference in areas of civil liberties, including:

- Racial, gender, or other discrimination
- Bullying
- LGBTQ issues
- Freedom of religion
- Freedom of non-belief
- Free speech and expression
- Free press, media
- Student rights
