WORLD THINKING DAY

EVENT CALENDAR

Contributed
By Mindy Stark

As a Girl Scout, you are part of a special group of girls that stretches across the world.

On February 22 of each year, Girl Scouts and Girl Guides from 146 countries celebrate World Thinking Day. That's one big celebration! World Thinking Day is a way to celebrate with girls all over the world by doing the same activities. The 2018 World Thinking Day theme is "Impact." Making an impact means having a strong effect on something or someone.

This World Thinking Day, Girl Scouts and Girl Guides will think about what it means to make an impact on the world and celebrate being apart of the global sisterhood that is Girl Scouts and Girl Guides.

When you became a Girl Scout, you joined a very large family, one that has members all around the world. Our "family" is called the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS).

Your World Trefoil Pin shows you are part of this global family. On this international holiday, Guides and Girl Scouts send friendly and peaceful thoughts to their sisters around the world. Thoughts are translated into action when girls take part in international friendship activities, service projects, and through contributions to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. Each year WAGGGS chooses a theme for World Thinking Day, and troops often use that theme for a ceremony or event. For more info go to: www.wagggsworld.org

This year, let's revive an old World Thinking Day tradition from the 1950's. Anyone involved, past or present, in Girl Guiding or Girl Scouts puts a light in their window on the evening of Feb.22. Put a simple sign with the candle letting all your neighbors know why you have the light in your front window. Let's light up the world this February to celebrate World Thinking Day!

EXTRAORDINARY GIRL SCOUT Troop #2042

SILVER AWARD

By Kimberly Frisbie &
Laura Comstock

Cadette Troop #2042 was led by Suzanne Ozsalar last year when the troop earned their Silver Award. Members of the troop included Laura Comstock, Kimberly Frisbie, Leigh Ozsalar, and Mallory Reed. All of the girls were in seventh or eighth grade at the time.

For their Silver Award, the scouts donated toys, games, puzzles, books, and toiletries to a domestic violence shelter in Waterloo. The girls wanted to help people in or near their community, and chose the Waterloo shelter because they were in desperate need of help. One of the scouts, Kimberly, also has family in the Waterloo area.

The scouts learned even the simplest things, such as toothpaste, can make a difference and improve someone's life. The scouts received their Silver Award at a ceremony in December.
