 3. Augustana College volleyball tournament July 12th ($100)?
- August 12th is the first official day of school practice.
 - This first week will be scheduled for try-outs.

I am speaking varsity level players specifically, but all who can make it are welcomed, this is time you can use to prepare for the season. I would encourage, not mandatory, all players to make any scheduled time on this list if possible. The decision to hold varsity try outs after August 12th remains a possibility based on numbers and overall schedule. If schedule dictates we can carry 18+ varsity players and create additional games/tournaments for them we will forgo the try outs. When we go to varsity camps, I may not be able to take everyone based on requirements from the camps directors themselves or money in our budget, this may become a last-minute selection and I want everyone to be aware of this. If you have questions, please contact me.
